Rapid Counting of Cash. Two young men in the Girard na-tional bank, Philadelphia, have developed remarkable speed in the counting of cash. One of them has the record of having counted 1,000 Bland silver dollars in one and a half minutes. The other has counted in 52 seconds 100 one dollar bills. When they are counting money during banking hours the movements of their hands are so swift and graceful that it is no unusual thing for hurried men of business to linger 15 minutes just to watch them.

A SECOND MRS. NATION.

Woman at Anthony, Kan., Led a Fen ition Against Four Saloons at That Place.

Anthony, Kan., Jan. 31.-Fifteen women, representing the local W. C. T. U., and led by a Mrs. Sheriff, of Danville, entered four "joints" here Wednesday morning early and smashed the fixtures, bottles, mirrors and all the paraphernalia in sight. The proprietor of one saloon was smash over the head with a bottle by the husband of one of the raiders and his skull laid open. For a time the whole town was in an uproar. The jointkeepers met the women at the door and warned them not to enter their places of business. But the men who secompanied them gave the women assurances of protection and they went ahead. Plate glass fronts were first demolished with axes and hatchets, and a rush made for the rooms, one of which was in the rear of J. K. Wilson's drug store. Everything, even the cash registers, were broken, and a flood of beer and whisky turned on the floor and into the streets. After the work of demolition was complete the crusaders held a prayer meeting on the side walk and "Nearer, My God, to Thee," was sung with fervor and great unction. ed Proceedings from Day to Day of the Closing Section of the Fifty-Sixth National L-rislative Hody.

Benator Depew (N. Y.) delivered in the senate on the 25th an eloquent address in support of the shipping bill. It was in the nature of an appeal for the upbuilding of the American merchant marine, by the granting of subsidies, as provided for in the measure. The Indian appropriation bill was then taken up, but little progress was made with it. The last hour of the senate was consumed in the passage of private pension bills... The house adopted the conference report upon the army reorganization bill. The contest over it was brief. The naval appropriation bill was afterwards passed and also 77 private pension bills.

Senator Frye (Me.) gave notice in the senate on the 29th that he intended to keep the shiming bill to the front, even as against appropriation bills. Senator Turner (Wash.) then spoke in severe arraignment of the bill, declaring it to be a lawless, piratical raid unon the public treasury "in the interest of a few private beneficiaries, and committing the government to expenditures aggregating $70. ment to expenditures aggregating $70,00,000. Before the session closed, however, the committee amendments were infermally agreed to. The Indian appropriation bill was also passed... The house spent the day upon the agricultural appropriation bill. Mr. Corlies (Mich.) made a victous onshaught unon the bureau of animal industry of the agricultural de-partment, but his attack raised a host of defenders and his amendment to re-duce the appropriation for the bureau was overwhelmingly defeated.

The shipping bill was kept at the front The shipping bill was kept at the front in the senate throughout the 30th. No appreciable progress was made, most of the time being occupied by Senator Turley (Tenn.) and Senator Jones (&rk.) in speeches opposing the bill and severely arraigning its alleged favoritism. Bills were afterwards massed establishing fish hatcheries ard fish stations in Idaho and Indiana. Early in the day an unsuccessful effort was made to secure agreement Indiana. Early in the day an unsuccessful effort was made to secure agreement to the conference report on the army reorganization bill... The agricultural appropriation bill was considered in the house. The friends of the farmer were much in evidence during the day and an agreessive opposition led by Mr. Mahon (Pa.) voted into the bill an additional appropriation of $50,00 for "farmers' bulletina." POLYGAMY ISSUE AGAIN.

Washington, Jan. 31.—The antipolygamy crusade which resulted in driving Mr. Roberts, Utah's representatives at the last session had an echo in the house yesterday during the consideration of the agricultural appropriation bill. When the section making the appropriations for agricultural colleges of the several states was reached Mr. Landis. of Indiana, offered an amendment providing that no money should be paid to the college in Utah until the secretary of agriculture was satisfied that no trustee or teacher in the institution practiced polygamy. The amendment came as a complete surprise. Mr. King, who succeeded Mr. Roberts, tried in vain to head it off with a point of order and then in veighed against it as simply an aftermath of the Roberts crusade. He insisted that polygamy was a thing of the past. Mr. Landis replied by all leging that two of the professors of the Utah agricultural college were polygamists and that one of the trustees had seven wives and 37 children. Upon this showing the house adopted the amendment, whereupon Mr. King the land of the professors of the utah agricultural college were polygamists and that one of the trustees had seven wives and 37 children.
